

Brazilian Army, WW2 72037

In 1944, some 25.000 Brazilians went over to Italy to fight the Germans. This Força Expedicionária Brasileira, consisting mainly of infantry, was equipped with jeeps, trucks and armoured recce vehicles - all supplied by the United States. Some vehicles of the force are portrayed here. The territorial units used M3 Stuarts and M3A3 Lee's, obsolete after the Italy campaign but still in use until the seventies. The territorial unit's vehicles in this set have the markings of 1943.

Of the Dodge WC-54 and M8 Greyhound in Brazilian service we currently have no pictures. We use the pictures below therefore purely as reference to the location of the decals. The vehicles depicted were, however, themselves in Brazilian service.
